In addition to providing needed services to home communities, CALA has reached out locally, regionally, nationally and professionally. As a co-sponsor, CALA makes significant contributions to the Joint Conference of Librarians of Color (JCLC); they collaborate with Asian Pacific American Library Association (APALA) and other caucuses; and they are actively involved throughout the Library Community in ALA.

In addition to providing needed services to home communities, CALA has reached out locally, regionally, nationally and professionally. As a co-sponsor, CALA makes significant contributions to the Joint Conference of Librarians of Color (JCLC); they collaborate with Asian Pacific American Library Association (APALA) and other caucuses; and they are actively involved throughout the Library Community in ALA.

Founded in 1973, CALA is proud to celebrate its 40-year’s legacy!

In addition to providing needed services to home communities, CALA has reached out locally, regionally, nationally and professionally. As a co-sponsor, CALA makes significant contributions to the Joint Conference of Librarians of Color (JCLC); they collaborate with Asian Pacific American Library Association (APALA) and other caucuses; and they are actively involved throughout the Library Community in ALA.

CALA plays a significant role in promoting diversity outreach and organizational success. By developing outreach, CALA is transforming itself to tailor its mission and vision to the 21st Century user needs.